ENTER TO LEARN

As we leave this place of knowledge
To enter the Army or enroll in a college,
We pause to think for just a minute
Of all those people who helped us while in it.
Miss Ella in Kindergarten gave us our start,
Then we learned reading and numbers by heart,
Not much of the Lincoln can we now remember
Except a vacation at the end of December.
In the Garfield we learned English, history, and math.
And struggled along a difficult path.
Freshmen, at last. Ah! The end is in sight,
But such teachers and studies! We never seem right,
Our importance as Sophomores increased a year later
As our loyalty increased to our dear "alma mater",
We were Juniors at last and prepared for the fun
Of being the Seniors in 221.
Four years of chemistry, speech, trigonometry,
English and history, Latin, geometry,
Typing, science, algebra, civics,
Shorthand, biology, Spanish, and physics.
These partly absorbed as we entered to learn
Now going to serve is our present concern.

WILL OF CLASS OF 1944

We, the Class of 1944, of Medina High School of Medina County and the State of Ohio do set forth this, our last will and testament, hereby revoking all other wills made by us heretofore.

First—Our will is that all expenses of cremation and burial services be taken care of as soon as possible after our decease.

Second—We bequeath in our turn as follows:

GENERAL DISPOSALS

To the Juniors,

We would like to leave Room No. 221, and the so called "Senior Privileges," which we were supposed to receive but, since we didn't receive, we can not leave. So Sorry.

To the other under classmen,

We give the secret of our original method of skipping school. No need to leave this to the Juniors.

To the faculty,

We return our badly torn and much used textbooks. We hope that in the years to come other senior classes may not be so faulty.

To Jack and his assistants,

We give the paper which we have used to write this Will. We assure him that the quantity will help keep the school nice and warm.

INDIVIDUAL DISPOSALS

Carl Abell—gives up his title of "Chief Wolf of Buckeye Boys' State" to any junior boy who isn't afraid to appear before the Dean of the school every morning for being out after hours.

Richard Alspach—wills his place in baseball's Hall of Fame to David Shane.

Mary Baczuk—offers her cooking talents to Lois Krause.

Patricia Becka—passes on her position in the drum section of the Band to any person who can attend the practice at noon.

Milton Brine—wills his "Olds" to Joe Neff on condition that Joe keeps the car running at high rates of speed.

George Buckley—bequeaths his ways with the women to Robert Dague.

Ruth Canfield—gives Miss Schrock back her paints and easel.

Buck Chandler—donates one slightly-used 1929 Model "A" Ford coupe to George Shaw to be used exclusively with "T" stamps.

Helen Clark—passes on her ability to participate in all musical organizations to any student who has the time.

James Crombie—wills his "well"-groomed hair to Duane Cogswell on condition that Duane always keeps plenty of hair-nets on hand to keep the hair out of his face.

Bette Davis—lends 2 slightly-used flashlight batteries to Sally Kaszian.

Jean Davis—bestows the honor of working for Mr. Fenn to any freshman who just can't stand the study halls.

Sally Davis—wills her standing bus trip every morning to any person occupying a comfortable, overstuffed chair in his first period class.

Jane DeGroat—leaves her appreciation for Art to John Burris.

Irene Derrick—wills her streamlined profile to Lou Schoenberger.

Robert Dillon—leaves his afternoon job at Firestone to Claribelle Auker on condition that Claribelle comes straight home from work.

Max Eakens—deeds one slightly-used physics book to Harry Aylard provided that Harry keeps the dust off the cover.

Joyce Evans—says that what little she has left she had better take with her.

Erma Few—quietly presents to Betty Baker her high position in the social world.

Joan Friedt—bestows her ability to keep from skipping classes to Regina Gunkleman.

Betty Frost and Barbara Gibbs—will to any two loyal Juniors the privilege to spend their entire senior year being faithful to two, big, wonderful, handsome Sailors.

Don Gerspacher—wills his liking for blondes to Harold Casey.

Tresa Gorfido—grants the honor of being head cheerleader to the person that can yell the loudest.

Albert Guthrie—gives up his collection of loud ties to any junior who likes to attract the women.

Connie Halderson—hereby bequeaths to any flat-headed sophomore the amazing (?) ability to wear her specs on her cranium. P. S. If the Sophomore would rather wear his own specs on his own cranium, it would be much better for both parties concerned. (Catch?)

Helen Hallock—wills her position as Drum Major of the band to any one who has the patience to take it.

Dorothy Hardy—wills her "hold" on the boys to the numerous Junior Wolfis.

Jeannette Harrington—leaves the pleasure of having to wear her majorettes costume to the band concerts to any girl who doesn't know what it is like to have all the wolves barking at her.

Dorothy Henniger—wills her seat in journalism class to someone who likes journalism.

Marjorie Hickling—would simply love to leave something to "Will" but as yet she hasn't had the pleasure of making his acquaintance.

Dick Higdon—gives his job of facing the assembly every week to anyone having a good supply of nerve pills.

Bob High—wills his ability to run a Model "A" on almost any type of fuel, including legal "A" stamps, to any person who can use said ability to good advantage.

Helen Hitzelberger—deeds her blonde hair to Miss Baesel.

Elizabeth Horvath—donates her free sodas and candy from her father's store, to the lucky person who can make it up to the "Candy Kitchen" first after reading this will.

Gloria Houston—leaves her ability of uncovering the middle names of students from Mr. Fenn's files to anyone interested. See Gloria.

Hope Huffman—bequeaths the art of playing the piano to Sue Kirkham, on condition that Sue plays nothing hotter than the "Blue Danube."

Howard Hunter—wills his liking for brunettes to Dick Harrington.

Grace Huntley—out of kindness of heart, grants her ability in Latin to Roland Page.

Jerry Jameyson—hands over the job of captaincy of next year's football team to "Whitey" Weber provided that the team beats Wadsworth and Clearview.

Winifred Judkins—lends her grade card to Johnny Burris.

Corinne Keefer—wills her ability to get out of English class for a whole week at a time to anyone taking English.

Wesley Kemp—is giving his "34" Studebaker to David Hyde to go to Wadsworth.

Betty Kenyon—offers her vocal ability to Junior McComas.

Sara Kindig—Gives her ability to skip classes to Ann Indoe.

Don King—gives up his football suit to the future star of M. H. S. sports, Stanley Bradway.

Marian Kolke — relinquishes her slimness of form to Marilyn Beekman.

Jane Lose—offers her job as editor of the "Medinamite" to anyone in next year's journalism class.

Doris Madison—leaves her love for sailors to Myrtle Hutchins. (P. S. By request of J. Burris since Johnny is thinking of joining the navy.)

Frances Maple—passes on her chair in the baritone section to any long-winded person, who doesn't mind falling off the back of the platform.

Eugene Meyers—wills his seat in No. 221 to a "desired" sophomore.

Helen Midgley—extends her ability to change hairdoes to Virginia Wheeler.

Dennis Miller—lends a slightly dilapidated "37" Plymouth to Duane Hamlin for transportation to the Jr.-Sr.

Edith Morris—leaves a cupboard full of badly-blackened pots and pans to Miss Wright.

Betty Morse—gives up her job of collecting attendance slips to any person who just loves to walk into Mr. Claggett's Math. class completely disturbing everyone from a sound slumber.

William Myers and Marilyn Nettleton—present an example of perfectly-balanced appreciation to Betty Schultz and Roland Page.

Betty Neel—leaves her southern accent to Judy Ryan who already has a slight one.

Roland Petelka and Norris Welton—bestow their radio knowledge to those two wizards, Dick Hazen and Harold Holderidge.

Rosemary Pierce—bequeaths one beautifully-trained voice to Dick (Sinatra) Gemeser.

Betty Quinton—wills her skill of squeaking during the concerts to Harold Holdridge.

Corky Rickard—hereby wills his place (if any) in Miss Phillip's heart to the future historian, David Riegger.

Lorna Ryan—gives her dateless evenings to her sister.

Bob Schilling—grants his football knowledge to Johnny Beck.

Jack Schwarz—deeds his great ability to "skip" and always get caught by Mr. Linn to some unlucky person.

Evelyn Sebek—leaves her seat on the schoolbus to any poor little fellow just starting the four-year grind.

Anna Sestan—wills her quietness to "Didy" Maple.

Pat Shelton—bequeaths her "jitterbugging" steps to Clare House, provided that Clare doesn't jitterbug too much with those Wadsworth girls.

Norma Jean Shirey—gives up the privilege of staying out of school to Janice Gordon.

Mary L. Smith—gladly turns over her civics book to the chairman of the waste-paper drive.

Carol Spencer—bequeaths her dainty ears to anyone who wants them. (P. S.) Particularly fine for small sailboats.

Frances Stafinski—has decided that she likes her sewing too well to part with it.

Zane Talbott—gives her way of flirting with the boys and getting away with it to Joy Huffman.

Betty Tinkey—hands out her wedding ring to Clem Caddlehopper for Daisy June.

Olivia Vijole—wills her overalls to Chuck Higdon.

Ralph Waite—generously bequeaths his favorite pin-up girl to some great lover of art—preferably Whitey Weber.

Leo Wilcox—passes on his mechanical ability for Fords to Harold Johnson.

Virginia Wilkey—wills her job as librarian to any Junior who is interested in books.

We truly believe that the above requests were made according to all wishes of the Senior Class, and so, in witness whereof, we hereunto set our hand and seal to this document on this day of our Lord, January tenth, one thousand nine hundred and forty-four.

ACTIVITIES

It might have been that heart-breaking game against Clearview. Perhaps it was the fast-moving basketball game against Lodi. Which ever it was, if you were there, you were certain to have seen those famous cheerleaders of which we are so proud.

At every game under Veteran Tresa, who has spent each of her four high school years cheering for M. H. S., the girls with their enthusiasm kept the spirit of our team and the pep of the spectators high.

ACTIVITIES

Increased to sixty pieces under the direction of Mr. Paul Wagner, the marching band really strutted its stuff at football games this fall. After the football season, the group was converted to a concert band. As such, the band was able to bring many evenings of enjoyment to the music-loving citizens of Medina.

Besides playing at football games, the band participated in war bond rallies, assembly programs, pep meetings, and gave two concerts, one in the fall and the other in the spring.

Featured as soloists for the band were Harold Holdridge, clarinet; Allan Reinhardt, trombone; George Shaw, trumpet.

JUNIOR BAND

ACTIVITIES

The Junior Band was organized by Mr. Paul T. Wagner to give the new music students experience and practice before entering the high school band.

The Junior Band was introduced to the public at the Annual Spring Concert.

ACTIVITIES

Any melodious orchestra music heard near Medina High on Monday, Wednesday, or Friday could be traced, immediately, to the music room if you were inclined to "super-sleuth."

There you would find the orchestra diligently perspiring over "The Russian Sailors' Dance" or Beethoven's "Fifth Symphony."

If you are interested further, you might listen to this group of "really cultural" musicians at the Annual Winter Concert or at Commencement.

Music has held full sway in the music room as the girls' chorus met alone or with the boys' glee club to form a mixed chorus. The mixed chorus met as a group twice each week industriously to practice for two annual concerts.

This special girls' chorus was organized for the purpose of having a small music group that could play for special programs at the churches, clubs, concerts, and assemblies. Soloist for the group is Barbara Gibbs.

OTHER MUSIC GROUPS

ACTIVITIES

Well-known around school and widely-appreciated for the excellent work that they do are several musical groups not large in the numbers they contain, but important in the support they give the large organizations of which they are a part.

MAJORETTES

Particularly active during football season, the majorette section of the marching band has, this year, been increased to include ten members. Tall, red-haired Helen Hallock strutted down the gridiron as chief majorette assisted by the four junior majorettes, Virginia Higgins, Jeannette Harrington, Betty Frost, and Carol Spencer at every game.

As a new feature, the three flag-twirlers, Garvin Hooven, Marilyn Kenyon, and Ila Williams were an impressive addition. Last, but certainly not least, from the junior high came Mary Ellen Sailer and Tommy Fisher to twirl batons at each side of our chief majorette.

SENIOR GIRL RESERVES

ACTIVITIES

"To find and give the best" is the aim of all Girl Reserves in Medina High School. In the great adventure of growing into the highest type of individual, each Girl Reserve strives daily to live up to the ideals set before them in the Girl Reserve Code.

During the year 1943-1944, the Senior chapter of the Reserves initiated eighteen girls into their group. The theme of the club is to promote the friendliest possible feeling of helpfulness and kindness to all.

ACTIVITIES

The Junior Girl Reserves in their regular monthly meetings emphasized the following six topics important to the building of mind and character in young girls: work, personal relations, problems of social concern, religion, and the arts. Under the leadership of the cabinet the promotion of inter-cultural and inter-racial understanding, international education, Christian values in daily living, boy and girl education and the proper attitude toward work were stressed.

Social get-togethers featured a Hallowe'en party, a World Fellowship meeting and the making of scrapbooks for the U. S. O.
